To whom it may concern:

My firm, Altertech and I have been working with Leigh and his product, ECOroads for the past five years with great results. I have a PhD in soil sciences from University of Rennes I, in France.

We have completed roads in different parts of Morocco. We currently have roads in Rabat, Casablanca, Marrakech, and Ouarzazate. These roads have been in use with ECOroads for over the past five Years. They have held up better than other road bases.

We have approvals with the National Laboratory for Testing (LPEE) and we have worked with the Public Works Department for the last 5 years with amazing results.

We have been most impressed with the technology and how it has been working over the past five years.
